Jews cleared their throats when they were told they had to donate a half Shekel. They heard Kofer Nafsho.

You get it? Kofer Nafsho. An atonement for the soul. They mistook Kofer for cougher.

RABBI ANSWERS HIS PUPILS

Dear Rabbi. I'm trying to meet a good Jewish woman. Nowadays, the place to do that is online. How do I attract a Frum girl online?

Shalom My Dear Pupil. Good luck. I'll try to help. Here are a few tips for you.

•Tell Her You Don't Use the Internet
Good Frum Jews don't use the web. You have to let her know you're Frum. That means telling her online that you don't use the internet. And that you thought the dating site's a monument. If she's truly Frum, she'll understand.

•Tell Her You're On the Site To Learn Torah
As a Frum Jew, you're always learning Torah. Eating, mowing the lawn, online dating, you're learning Torah. You'll only need to explain how you met her learning Torah if she's not spiritually connected to H'. If you can tell her that the dating site isn't online and that you were only there to learn Torah, you will land a good Jewish girl from a very Frum family. You might even end up with rabbinic dynasty.

•Work On Your Profile Pictures
Social media is Asur. It's a profile. If you're not religious and you use the internet to meet girls online, you'll have to make your profile look Frum. To see how to grab a kid for a pic, see any religious girls' profile and learn the nephew holding technique. Picture Ideas to Employ: Show yourself at shul. Pictures at graves are great. Show yourself doing Kiruv. Bringing people closer to Yiddishkeit is the only excuse for being online. If you're doing Kiruv you can do anything Asur. Sinning is fine if you're bringing people closer to Judaism. If you have a picture of yourself at Wendy's, you can post it with a meme 'doing Kiruv.' All pictures should be of you with a Sefer, learning Torah. Playing basketball with a Sefer in hand. Bench pressing a Gemara is another great pic. Be sure to have kids in your pictures. Grab random children. Better yet. Sit in front of a Kosher pizza shop on a Sunday and take a picture. Kosher pizza is part of all Frum Sunday family activities. Bouncy houses, bowling, the zoo. Pizza is part of the scheduled activity. And be sure to have Sefer in hand. If you happen to post a picture of yourself without a Sefer, be sure to meme it 'doing Kiruv.'

•The best piece of advice I can give you is to move to New York. This way, you can be right near all the Jewish single women when you meet them online.

SERMON OF REBUKE- KI TISA

Shabbat Shalom My Pupils...

(Shemot 30:12) When counting 'let each person give atonement for their soul to H'... so there won't be a plague when counting.'
This shul just needs to do atonement... There is already is a plague in this shul. A plague of bad Mishloach Manot...

Atonement means giving money. Nobody hear gives money. There is a plague of cheap in this congregation right now... You gave me me a can of peas that expires in 2028. That's not a good gift... Well. That's what I got in my Mishloach Manot... If you didn't want it, you should've thrown it out. Now, my house is full of a plague of stuff I have to clean before Pesach... Because of your Mishloach Manot...

We even have a Minyin? I think we have a Minyin of people who donated nothing. I wouldn't know... We can't count, because you people don't give. If you donated... You did give me poppy seed Hamntashen...

Rashi teaches the evil eye has power over a Minyin... Numbering things... In our case, this Minyin is an evil eye. Just look at Bernie... He's mad. On Purim, you gave him your trash...

(30:13-15) Half a shekel... Rich don't give more and poor don't give less. If everybody'd just give a decent Hamentashen. Rich and poor... I don't need artisan poppy seed Hamentashen...

The rich in our shul don't give anything...

Rivka's Notes on Rabbi Mendelchem's Drasha:

The poor people didn't like the idea of a half shekel. They said it's too much.

The rabbi made it clear that this is not what Mordechai had in mind when he suggested gift baskets to celebrate. You don't celebrate a month before Pesach with crumbs. Which is why the rabbi also declared that all Hamentashen must be of soft pastry.

SHUL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Note from the Rabbi: I got the worst Mishloach Manot again. Here is a list of stuff that is forbidden to put in Mishloach Manot next year: Lemon wafers, thimble sized alcohol you stole from ELAL, poppy seed Hamentashen- because nobody likes it, papers you need to recycle, and anything you need to get out of your house so that you have less to clean for Pesach.

We will be honoring the Feldenwitz family with a Kiddish. We don't believe they deserve a dinner. A Kiddish should be enough for them. They like gefilte fish balls.

Sleeping on Shabbat is a good thing, as Shabbat is the day of rest. Even so, the rabbi does request that you don't sleep during his sermon.

The Pesach Cleaners are now out and open for business. They're charging fifty-five dollars an hour. They said that's a good deal. They will charge less if they don't have to hear parents screaming at their kids.

We want to thank the Jewish Heritage Center for this picture. After much research, we have finally come across the foundations of the scari Tallis... They forced it on the Bar Mitzvah boys in cold weather, when taking the Simcha pictures.
