Issue 145

Mike Lindell is making too much money off this war, selling Gaza Dream Sheets.

You get it? Mike Lindell is the My Pillow Guy. He sells Gaza Dream Sheets. Gaza was mixed with Giza. Giza isn't far from Israel, and cotton is an industry.

RABBI ANSWERS HIS PUPILS

Dear Rabbi. I am still heartbroken with everything going on in Israel. How can I give of myself.

Shalom My Dear Pupil. There are thousands of opportunities. We shall focus on donations to soldiers. Our soldiers are cared for by Jews around the world. We want to give to our brethren and do our part during this time. Here are some of the many opportunities out there for you to help our people at this time.

•BBQ for Soldiers You can donate a BBQ to a base for 10K. It used to be two hundred dollars. Since the war started and communal care has surfaced, meal prices have gone up. Nobody wants your chicken dogs anymore. The soldiers have become accustomed to better cuts. Jews from the Tri-state area are now involved in the war, so keep your ground meat unless in slider form. To quote my friend from New York, 'You don't send our soldiers out there without a steak. You don't give them a brisket. Prime rib. You go to the war, you go out fed. Prime. Five Stah. You go to battle with a foot massage. You give them a foot massage. The Gaza. You make sure they see a musical... You bring them Phantom, then they go to Lebanon.'

•Beef Jerky You can also donate beef Jerky, just in case they missed the BBQ. In the beginning it was bulletproof vests and night vision goggles. That stuff was too expensive. So, we started focusing on food. Now, we're focusing on gourmet.

•Bring Chocolate Chip Cookies Chocolate chip cookies was the focus of all Israeli families for the first month of the war. And we now have the most out of shape soldiers thanks to Chana and her kids helping in the kitchen.

•Sneak Stuff Past ELAL Security Not very hard. I've been smuggling in stuff for years.

•Night Vision Goggles and Battle Equipment Since food purchasing has moved to five star, war equipment seems cheaper... This is what happens when mothers get involved in war. Soldiers get fed well, they get out of shape, and shirts get tucked.

SERMONS OF REBUKE: PIKUDEI

Shabbat Shalom My Pupils...

It's the last Parsha in Shemot... We'll be reading the Torah next week too. It's every week, Bernie. We finish and continue...

(Shemot 39:2) 'And he made...' He did it correctly. He didn't start making an artistic Ephod. This isn't Hillel High art class. You do things right. Not like our board...

(39:21) 'They attached the Breastplate (Chosen) from its rings to the rings of the Ephod with a cord... and the Chosen did not move from upon the Ephod, as H' commanded Moshe.' You don't construct like an idiot... When you build things right, they don't move. They stay in one spot. The pulpit moved five times this sermon. Who puts a rabbi's pulpit on wheels?! If you followed H's commands and didn't do stupid stuff, the pulpit would be normal... You mess up everything... There is no commandment to sing harmony... No singing is what I propose... It's not melody. We are asking for Shidduch Resumes... I am against it. Not one of our members is qualified to work as a spouse... You do everything wrong. Shidduch applications? He can't get a job at Yossi's Falafel Stand... Rivka's Notes on Rabbi Mendelchem's Sermon: The lectern on wheels makes no sense. The board was rethinking where the rabbi speaks from. They had a meeting last week to re-discuss which way Mizrach is. Questions to ask when applying for job of my spouse. Do you make a lot of money? What's your salary? Rabbi's classes were great. The class on not singing was the rabbi telling people to stop singing.

SHUL ANNOUNCEMENTS

We truly ask you all to not sing harmony anymore. You are all singing different songs. Due to your singing, the rabbi, the Chazin, the Gabai, the membership, the guests of the Bar Mitzvah, the janitor and the secretary who doesn't come on Shabbat, don't want to be in shul.

Our shul's matchmakers are asking for Shidduch resumes. If you want to apply for a match call Mrs. Bergstein. She messed up my marriage.

Volunteering for Israel Opportunities: Ten-thousand-dollar BBQ donations. Car rally carpool hosts. Lox for Chayal Breakfast Day.

Snow Advisory is not an excuse for not coming to shul when there is no snow.

Upcoming Classes: How to Not Sing in Shul. Writing a Shidduch Resume: How to Make Yourself Look Decent. How to Volunteer By Not Coming to Shul Ever Again.

The Kibbitzer this week is dedicated to all of our holy brothers and sister who have been affected by the terror.
