

THE Kibbitzer

Issue 147

He took a breathe and they were happy with their sacrifice. A carbon dioxide.

You get it? A Karban is a sacrifice. They were bringing sacrifices to Gd. The Karban Dioxide joke is always a giver. The whole Sefer Vayikra.

RABBI ANSWERS HIS PUPILS

Dear Rabbi. I don't have 10K to donate a BBQ for our soldiers. What else can I donate that will be of significance for the Chayalim?

Shalom My Dear Pupil. Your heart is good, no matter how much the community doesn't care to have you as part of the shul. Here are some donations you can give to help our brothers and sisters in Israel.

•Bring Chocolate Chip Cookies
Soldiers like cookies. Chocolate chip cookies was the focus of all Israeli families for the first month of the war. Advocates cheered, 'You go to war, you get cookies.' They would bake cookies and give them out to soldiers who were trying to figure out how all these people got out of the draft. And we now have the most out of shape soldiers thanks to Chana's kids helping in the kitchen.

•Socks Soldiers have requested this. It seems that our soldiers have been fighting terrorists for years without socks. What kind of army sends out soldiers barefoot. Step on a rock on a Gazan beach, that's a soldier down.

•Night Vision Goggles and Battle Equipment Soldiers are requesting this and socks. Apparently, the Israeli army has been sending soldiers out to war barefoot. If they're lucky, they get a knife. The commanders think they're producing an episode of Naked and Afraid. These soldiers train by playing Call of Duty and now they have to go to war without night vision?! These guys are out there and they can't even see. You got with no glasses, 20/200 vision, sniping.

•Donate Anything Not Israeli Israelis love anything not Israeli. I remember when Jiffy's peanut butter made it to Israel. An amazing day. Glorious. It wasn't Israeli and that is what we celebrated. Charmin's toilet paper. Now that's a joy on the front lines.

•Sneak Stuff Past ELAL Security Very helpful and not very hard. I've been smuggling in stuff for years. Bring whatever you can to Israel from overseas. And bring Duty Free. The fact you paid more for the alcohol so you can save on taxes will be appreciated.

SERMONS OF REBUKE: TZAV

Shabbat Shalom My Pupils...
(Vayikra 6:21) 'And an earthenware that it was cooked in shall be broken. And if it was cooked in a copper vessel, that should be purged (in fire) and rinsed in water'... You should clean your plates They are disgusting... It's not Biblical to call it pottery. Earthenware is Biblical. Gd commands Earthenware... If it absorbs Holy blood from an offering, it is also not Kosher for you to eat it. It must be Kashered, just as if it touched non-Kosher food. Like anything in your house. The Treif kitchen... If you touch it, it's Treif... You can't Kasher pottery... Earthenware is pottery. I don't know why. But you have to break it... I have seen what you made in pottery class. That should be broken. It's horrible. You should've broke it before pig touched it... Then you buy new vessels. That's what it takes to be Kosher. Money and eight sets of dishes. Three sinks, plus two for Pesach... You can't be cheap when it comes to your religion. Matzah is ninety dollars a pound. If it's between day school and Matzah, you go with Matzah... And Bernie, there is no need to shake the Bsamim that much... You're playing it like it's a maraca... Yes. Bernie is annoying.

Rivka's Notes on Rabbi Mendelchem's Sermon:
I am buying machine Matzah. I can't pay ninety dollars for somebody to rub their hands in my food. We're at Havdalah and Bernie's play 'La Cucaracha'. Three minutes of him playing the Bsamim.

SHUL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Matzah orders must be in this week. It is only ninety dollars a pound. To note, we have checked and the government said that Matzah cannot be used as a tax write-off.

Please be careful when backing up from your Amidah. We understand you are taking three steps back, but please look out for other members of the congregation. Cheryl got injured last week due to Samantha's Kavanah and spiritual connection to Gd.

The shul is planting trees in Israel, if you trust the Jewish National Fund to not steal your money.

We ask our congregants to keep down the Bsamim cloves shaking when we're not doing a musical Havdalah.

Contemporary Halacha Classes: How to Not Get Annoyed by Bernie. How to Not Speak Lashon Hara About Bernie Though He's Annoying.

The Kibbitzer this week is dedicated to all of our holy brothers and sister who have been affected by the terror.
To Sponsor - CoNTACT kibbitzermag@gmail.com