

THE Kibbitzer

Issue 128

I got a letter from my Palestinian friend that said he misses me. I wrote back, 'Cause you have terrible aim.'
You get it? Misses, He's shooting rockets at me.

RABBI ANSWERS HIS PUPILS

Dear Rabbi. How do I know if what is being reported is true?

Shalom My Dear Pupil. I would not trust anything coming from Hamas or the Palestinian Authority. They've been lying forever. For that matter, I wouldn't trust the New York Times. An example of this is Pallywood and staged deaths. Here's some brilliant scenes of dead people I've seen.

- Thirsty Dead People* One dead guy needed a drink. He flipped off his sheet, reaches for a Coke, thanks his friend and is still dead, while requesting shawarma for dinner.
- Jittery Dead Guy* One dead guy who had to scratch himself. He had an itch. I'm watching this, asking, 'Did the dead guy just scratch himself and request a drink?!'

Note: It's wrong to laugh at people who are dead with a parched throat and an itch they can't reach. Torture.

- Frightened Dead Guy Runs* He was under a sheet, laying there, dead, and then he got frightened, threw off the sheet and took off. But he was dead. The people of Gaza reported it.

The dead guy was running. I know it's wrong to mock dead people who have to flee. Something has to go terribly wrong for a dead guy to sprint. The extent of the Israeli evil, to get a dead guy to run, one can only imagine. Story: They were in the middle of the funeral, carrying the stretcher. They drop the stretcher, and you see a dead guy jump up from under the sheet and run. How? Miracles. He was frightened, and bam, he was out of there. And to think they were going to bury him in jeans and Nikes. Not respectable. However, it's good he had on his sneakers, allowing him to take off.

- Don't Argue Against Staged Death* You will be cancelled. I warn you. It's offensive to argue truth. And it's wrong to laugh at moving dead people. And Biden shouldn't be questioning the numbers of reported deaths. That running dead guy passed away six times last week. To quote the BDS movement: 'You are dead if you identify as dead. And to tell somebody that is drinking at a cafe that they are not dead is offensive.'

SERMONS OF REBUKE: VAYERA

Shabbat Shalom My Herd...
(Bereishit 18:18-19) H' says, 'All the nations of the world will be blessed through Avraham for I have known that he commands his sons and his daughters and his house after him that they should keep the ways of H', of righteousness and justice...' Nobody is being blessed through this congregation. Our one Kohen doesn't even know how to split his fingers... Sdom and Amora are also about Tzadikim. That's what brings Bracha to the world. Let's talk about righteous people and passing on righteousness... Would Topeka be saved if it was up to our congregation?!

A Tzadik wouldn't make Rachel Bracha clean after them every Kiddish... Only person who has ever offered to help is Moishe Pinchas. He offered and then left his plate on the table and walked right out... Why? Because Rachel said to him that he can help with cleaning up the plates. He just stood up and walked out. He figured, 'If that's the case, I need to get out of here fast'...

Mendel is not somebody you want running security. If Mendel was running security in Sedom and Amora, nobody would've been saved.

Rivka's Notes on Rabbi Mendelchem's Sermon:
Mendel decided that the best way to run the security team is to have a committee. To quote: 'You don't have security without a committee.' And then nothing happened. But they had meetings. I question if the shul can have Brachas with Mendel.

SHUL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Shul security will be run by Mendel.

The fist Yad is here. The finger will be a fist. Due to the number of ripped Tallises, the rabbi has made the decision to only use fists as fingers. Please show up for the shul's unveiling of the fist Torah pointer fist. It will not be violent.

The Tallis folding has been off. Placement as well. The rabbi will be giving a class this week on how to fold and place a Tallis properly on a shelf. Also, how to not make a mess of Tallises by throwing them. The rabbi will also teach people how to pick up their plate and put it in the trash, by not leaving their plate out for Rachel Bracha.

No more slowing down Kaddish. People want to stop saying Amen for Mark's dad, due to the bothersome nature of Mark's voice and speed.

Kippah clips are now required for funerals on windy days. Too many Kippas have flown into graves this fall.
